2021-2022

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS TO BECOME AN AGBU HERITAGE SCHOLAR

AGBU offers a one-time outright grant to one to two college-bound high school senior graduating from the (2) AGBU High Schools in the United States.

Applicants must be seniors with a GPA of 3.5 (out of 4.0) or above at both of the AGBU High Schools within the United States:

AGBU Manoogian-Demirdjian School in Canoga Park, CA

AGBU Alex and Marie Manoogian School in Detroit, MI

Applicants must be admitted to a competitive university and must be nominated for the grant by the principal and faculty of their respective high school.

Applicants will be approved for the grant based on the following criteria:

- Academic Excellence
- Financial Need
- Involvement in Community Service, with attention to their involvement in the Armenian community

Nominees must submit the following materials through the principal of their high school by April 15:

- AGBU Heritage Scholar Form (available for download online or for pick-up at the Principal's Office)
- Two (2) letters of recommendation
- Resumé
- One (1) passport size photograph
- Letter of acceptance from the college/university they plan to attend

Attention AGBU High School Principals: All nominations for Heritage Scholars must be submitted to the AGBU Scholarship Department by May 1. Principals will be notified of decisions by May 15.

The awards will be distributed to the recipients after their graduation ceremonies.
